Welcome Accommodation Lindos About Us Booking/Contacts

A warm welcome to Greece

The Lindos Athena Hotel is set in its own mediterranean gardens and is located on Krana Hill with views to the famous Acropolis, just a heartbeat away from the centre of the beautiful village of Lindos.

A warm and friendly welcome and service awaits you at these comfortable, family-run studios. Lindos Athena features Greek island style studios for 2 and apartments for 4 people.

The Lindos Athena was built by local legend, the late Socrates Tsovilis and his Scottish business partner David Peffer and has been operating since 2004. Socrates came to Lindos in the 1970's and became a key figure in both business and public relations within the village for nearly forty years. Known for his kindness, hospitality, honesty, respect, bright ideas, activities and positive influence on people, Socrates was much-loved and respected by locals and visitors alike and accumulated many friends from all around the world who, along with his family, will continue to keep his memory alive.

In his honour and according to his standards, the family carries on with his dream of delivering a great hospitality experience to guests of Lindos. From us, our best wishes for a wonderful vacation!
